Marcoport Trading is dedicated to the use of partnering to generate growth and competitive advantage. We provide you with the guides and assistance necessary to establish, manage, and grow advantageous joint ventures and strategic alliances.

International sourcing of quality products from reliable producers can, and often is, the most difficult aspect of product acquisition. Marcoport Trading specialises in sourcing and insures our clients find the right supplier to suit their needs.

Our goal is to build long-term relationships based on mutual trust and success, by consistently delivering services and products that add value and exceed our clients' expectations.

Our sourcing service provides strategic sourcing solutions that can achieve quality standards and logistical requirements of even the toughest of conditions.

- Find low cost providers in any area of the world to produce your product offerings per your specs.
- Perform blind quality audits at any location around the globe at intervals per your specs.
- Assist in creating and articulating your project specifications and characteristics in local languages to ensure nothing is lost in translation.
- Manage the cultural differences that result in international business transactions due to the lack of knowledge about local business practices.
- Assist in mitigating cost overruns associated with international business transactions while also handling your international payments.
- Leverage our team's international business knowledge and company resources to yield positive financial results for your organization.
- Tailor our solutions for your business whether you are a small startup or a multinational; we have a strategy for you.
- Use our business contacts, knowledge and experience streamline the ordering process and provide the best products to you in the quickest time at the lowest price possible, while giving you all the advantages of our years of experience. We will save you time and expense by helping you eliminate the need for costly international business trips.

Marcoport Trading is the one-stop provider of quality trade leads, information about exporting, and up-to-date information on trade shows and industry events worldwide.

We have a unique relationship with a large network of established buyers in Europe, Middle East, Australia and the United States.

From experience, we know the best way to approach the right partner for your product.
